

LOS ANGELES BUSINESS JOURNAL

THE COMMUNITY OF BUSINESS™

Electronically reprinted from August 29, 2016 - September 4, 2016

THE LOS ANGELES 500

Publisher’s Note: With the LA500, we have endeavored to shape your get-things-done directory, a guidebook to the people in town who make an impact. Building a region such as ours takes talents of all kinds – dealmakers, financiers, visionaries, facilitators. We think the bios we offer will give readers an up-close look at the people shaping the business and social fabric of the region.

Category: Facilitator

CINDY STARRETT

Partner

Latham & Watkins

Cindy Starrett has represented key clients whose investments in sustainable job-creating projects are estimated at more than $1 billion. Starrett chairs Latham’s global energy and infrastructure project siting and approvals practice, and is at the forefront of real estate development and infrastructure investment. Current and recent projects include the LA Football Club’s city-approved plan to build a Major League Soccer stadium in Exposition Park and the recently opened Westfield Village at Topanga. Her civic engagements include chairing the Los Angeles Parks Foundation, together with board service for organizations providing services to children and families including the Dodger Foundation, Orthopaedic Institute for Children, and Abode Community Housing.

ENJOY MOST TOUGHEST CHALLENGE

Finding win-win solutions to transform great project visions into reality. Setting the best possible example of consistent excellence as a professional woman while making time for my family and community.

FUN FACT

I’ve climbed Mount Rainier and Mount Whitney and would love to climb Mount Kilimanjaro.

ALMA MATERS

BA, Princeton University; JD, University of Pennsylvania Law School.

BUCKET LIST

African safari with family and friends.

HOBBY/PASSION

Helping children have access to sports, which has so many benefits.